

Revitalizing the Maritime Industry: A Maritime Forum May 7-8, 2012

Early Registration Special

$475

FULL CONFERENCE + MEALS
(REGULARLY $575)

$250

SINGLE DAY+ MEALS
(REGULARLY $300)

Register Now! Offer Extended to April 13th

The Conference Center at the Maritime Institute, (CCMIT)

Baltimore, Maryland

692 Maritime Blvd.

Linthicum Heights, MD 21090

www.ccmiit.org

Keynote Speakers

Luncheon Speaker: Day 1 (May 7)

Hon. Helen Bentley
President and CEO of Helen
Delich Bentley & Associates,
Inc.; Former Member, U.S.
House of Representatives,
State of Maryland, 2nd District

Dinner & Reception Speaker: Day 1 (May 7)

John Porcari
Deputy Secretary of Transportation, DOT

Luncheon Speaker: Day 2 (May 8)

Sean Connaughton
Virginia Secretary of Transportation; Former Maritime Administrator, U.S. Maritime Administration

Moderators

John Graykowski,
Principal, Maritime Industry
Consultants
Former Deputy & Acting
Administrator of MARAD

Mark Ruge,
Partner, K&L Gates; Counsel,
American Maritime Partnership

Panelists

Allegretti

Bohnert

Cook

Cox

Kaskin

Lee

Marcus

Marler

O'Connell

Paine

Papavizas

Parker

Paxton

Pyne

Reeve

Roberts

Toohay

Yonge

Conference Agenda

Moderators:

John Graykowski, Principal, Maritime Industry Consultants, & former Deputy & Acting Administrator of MARAD

Mark Ruge, Partner, K&L Gates; Counsel, American Maritime Partnership

Day 1: (Monday May 7, 2012)

Day 1 Kickoff (9:00)

Requirements & Realities: Do we have the resources to make America's Marine Highway a reality? What are the major challenges? (9:30 - 11:45)

Moderator: Charlie Papavizas, Partner, Winston and Strawn LLP

- Roger Bohnert, Deputy Associate Administrator, Intermodal System Development, MARAD
- Joseph Cox, President & CEO, Chamber of Shipping of America
- Percy Pyne, Chairman & Founding Partner, American Feeder Lines
- Mark Yonge, President & CEO, Intermodal Marine Lines, LLC

Lunch: (12:00 - 1:30)

Speaker: Hon. Helen Bentley, President and CEO of Helen Delich Bentley & Associates, Inc.; Former Member, U.S. House of Representatives, State of Maryland, 2nd District

Fleet & Infrastructure: Who will build the next generation of Jones Act vessels and related infrastructure? Where will the funding come from? (2:00 - 4:30)

Moderator: Michael Roberts, Senior Vice President, General Counsel, Crowley Maritime Corporation

- Tom Allegretti, President & CEO, The American Waterways Operators
- Mike Toohey, President and CEO, Waterways Council, Inc.
- Matt Paxton, President, Shipbuilders Council of America (Invited)
- Richard Marler, CEO, Signal International

Dinner & Reception: (5:30 - 8:30)

Speaker: John Porcari, John D. Porcari, Deputy Secretary of Transportation, DOT

Day 2: (Tuesday May 8, 2012)

Day 2 Kickoff: (9:00)

Opportunities & Feasibility: Why Short Sea Shipping Makes Sense Now. (9:30 - 11:45)

Moderator: H. Clay Cook Jr., Counsel, Seward & Kissel LLP

- Jonathan Kaskin, Director, Strategic Mobility and Combat, Logistics Division, US Navy
- John Reeve, President, Reeve & Associates
- Henry Marcus, Professor, Mechanical Engineering - Marine Systems, MIT

Lunch (12:00 - 1:30)

Speaker: Sean Connaughton, Virginia Secretary of Transportation; Former Maritime Administrator, U.S. Maritime Administration

Public Opinion, Government Policy & Maritime Education:

Public/private partnerships are the key to nurturing job creation and economic renewal. (1:45 - 4:00)

Moderator: Jack O'Connell, Senior Editor, The Maritime Executive Magazine

- John Cullather, Former Staff Director, House Subcommittee on USCG & Maritime Transportation
- Marygrace Parker, Freight, Mobility, Safety & Security Coordinator, I-95 Corridor Coalition
- Dione Lee, President, QSE Solutions

Closing remarks (3:00-3:30)

*Schedule is subject to change.